Designed by renowned architect Miguel Tobal and constructed in 2008, this property offers a stunningly aesthetic as well as practical lay-out. Through the gates entering the grounds via the spacious driveway we pass a tall waterfall feature towards the separate triple garage and carport straight ahead and find the magnificent entrance to the villa on the left. The entrance hall immediately sets the tone of what is to come with a double ceiling and staircases on either side. Further straight one we have the living room and dining area with fireplace separating a cozy TV-lounge, all with terrace access. In the left wing of the ground floor we have the fully fitted kitchen with breakfast area...
